

ORCHIVION

ORCHIVION is an extreme symphonic metal band from Warsaw, Poland, formed in 2004.

In 2013 they released their first EP "Reigncraft" and a second one in 2016 - "IMPAIROR". The mixing and mastering of their second album has been done by Arkadiusz "Malta" Malczewski in Sound Division Studio, Warsaw. This album contains much more rich guitar, vocals and orchestral arrangements, including male choir.

The mixing and mastering of Orchivion's first full-length release was done by Mendel Bij de Leij who described this album as a „behemoth of a record”.

Orchivion aims to create their vision of synergy of symphonic music and metal. The band again kept their approach of featuring live choirs in every song. Inspired by cinematic atmosphere, heavy riffing, fast, complex drumming and aggressive vocals they search for melodies that correspond with dark and monumental sound.

After concluding the audio production the band started do work on the cover art. Once again their drummer put a tremendous amout of work into the visual part of the release, using numerous techniques. This time he was competing with multiple AI models and Orchivion speaks in their lyrics a lot about this new reality.
